

FHMS Tiger Beat December 18, 2017

Dear Parents, Guardians, and Students,

Bring in the New Year with family & friends. Island Rec and the San Juan Island Prevention Coalition are teaming up once again to offer an alcohol-free community celebration. This free event takes place on December 31st from 7:00-9:00 pm at the Mullis Center. Children 13 and under must be accompanied by an adult.

There will be music, contests, games, prizes and more. Bring along a sweet or savory potluck dish to share. For more information please call 378-4953.

The FHMS PTA is excited to announce its first annual Cookie Fest for our teachers! They want to deluge the teachers with holiday spirit to thank them for all they do! Please drop off goodies on Wednesday morning, December 20th. The FHMS PTA thanks you for participating.

Message from the Library: Time to clean out your backpack or locker, and return all those overdue library books before winter break! Please return or renew any overdue books this week. Just stop by the library and Ms. Salisbury will be happy to renew any of your checked out library books, or you can check out a NEW book for over winter break!!
